4 REVIEW & CERTIFY

Restricting Information

The Charities Act 2005 emphasises transparency and the availability of information about registered charities to "promote public trust and confidence in the charitable sector".

The Act requires information on the Charities Register to be available to the public. However, it also allows Charities Services to prevent the public from seeing information or documents if it is in the "public interest" to do so. This is a high threshold. Please refer to "Restricting information" on our website for guidance. Any such information or documents will still be subject to requests under the Official Information Act 1982.

If after reading the guidelines you still wish to request that information or documents be restricted, please attach a letter that covers the following:

- What information you would like restricted
- Why you think it is in the public interest to have it restricted
- Evidence to support your request

I would like to restrict information in my Annual Return from the public view. I have attached a letter with the above information.

Annual Return Fee

If your charity's total gross income was less than $10,000, you do not need to pay a fee. Otherwise, the Annual Return fee can be paid by internet banking.

Please indicate as appropriate:

- No fee is payable as our total gross income was less than $10,000
- A payment of $76.67 has been made by internet banking to:

Certification

I certify that the information in this form is correct and that I am authorised to complete this form. I also certify that I am authorised to complete new officer details and/or remove officers (if applicable) on the officer/s behalf.

In some cases, officers have been appointed under an Act, by the Governor-General, by the Governor-General in Council, or by a Minister of the Crown. # Privacy Statement

Purpose and Scope

The purpose of this privacy statement is to let you know when we collect personal information as part of the annual return process and what we do with it.

Collection, Storage and Use of Personal Information

Collection and use of personal information

We require you to provide some personal information when you complete the annual return (which includes a section on updating your charity's details). For example, we require personal information about officers of charities, including full name, date of birth and residential address details. We also require up-to-date contact details for your charity, which includes a contact name, email and phone number.

This information is used to help us carry out functions under the Charities Act 2005. For example, identifying details of officers may be used to check that officers are not disqualified under the Charities Act 2005 because, for instance, they are an undischarged bankrupt or are under the age of 16 years, or when investigating suspected wrongdoing. We may also use personal information provided to us for other reasons permitted by law (including by the Charities Act 2005 and the Privacy Act 2020).

If you are providing personal information on behalf of officers of your charity, you must tell them what it is being collected for and obtain their consent to you providing the information to us on their behalf.

If you choose not to provide this information as part of the annual return, your charity could be in breach of statutory obligations (for example, the Charities Act 2005 requires charities to submit an annual return, using the prescribed form, within 6 months of the end of the financial year). A significant or persistent failure by a charity to meet its obligations under the Charities Act 2005 is a ground for deregistering a charity and removing it from the Charities Register.

Access to and disclosure of personal information

When you provide personal information, it will be accessible by Department of Internal Affairs' staff and authorised third parties (such as third-party contractors) to the extent that is necessary, for example for them to administer or work on the Charities database. We will store and keep personal information secure in accordance with the Privacy Act 2020, and agents will be subject to information security and privacy requirements.

Personal information will only be disclosed or shared where required or otherwise permitted by law. For example, the Charities Act 2005 requires the publicly accessible Charities Register to contain the names of both current and former officers of registered charities. However, officers' residential address details and dates of birth will not be publicly available. The Charities Act 2005 also authorises the supply of information or documents held on the Charities Register to the Inland Revenue Department to assist in the carrying out of powers and functions under any of the Inland Revenue Acts. Personal information of officers may be shared where this is necessary for compliance purposes, for example, to investigate a complaint.

Records and retention of personal information

We will retain personal information indefinitely, because the Charities Act 2005 requires the Charities Register to contain the names of both current and former officers of registered charities. This information is also required to support our ongoing regulatory work.

Rights of Access and Correction

You have the right to:

- find out from us whether we hold personal information about you;
- access that information; and, if applicable
- request corrections to that information.

You can call 0508 CHARITIES (0508 242 748), email info@charities.govt.nz, or write to us at: Charities Services, PO Box 12138, Thorndon 6144.

You can also log on to your charity's online account on the Charities Services website (www.charities.govt.nz) to view the officer details for your charity.

The NZBN can be used in a number of business interactions and other businesses may start asking for your NZBN. The NZBN does not replace your Charity's registration number. ### Street Address

If your street address is not the same as your postal address, you may provide that too. Providing your street address is optional.

Kaupapa Māori

Your charity may consider itself Kaupapa Māori if its primary purposes are to support Māori communities. A charity would be unlikely to consider itself Kaupapa Māori if its focus was mainly on outcomes for the wider population.

Pasifika

Ethnic Charities

Was your charity set up with a primary purpose of supporting ethnic communities? The New Zealand Government defines ethnic communities as communities composed of Asian, African, Continental European, Latin American and Middle Eastern cultures.

2 PURPOSE & STRUCTURE

Charitable Purpose

The description of your charitable purpose or mission that you enter here will be displayed on your charity's public summary on the Charities Register. For most charities, this information can also be found in your financial statements or performance report

Legal Structure

Your organisation can be structured in many ways. If your charity is not a marae, your charity may be a company, society or trust. A society or trust could then be either incorporated (under the Incorporated Societies Act 1908 or 2022, or the Charitable Trusts Act 1957) or unincorporated. For most charities, this information can be found in your rules document, and possibly on your performance report.

Activity, Sector and Beneficiary

Please select the main activity, sector and beneficiary of your charity. This information will be publicly available on the Charities Register (charities.govt.nz) and is used for statistical purposes.

Giving to other Charities

Consider the main activities your charity undertakes, and whether they involve raising funds for, or providing funding to, other organisations. An example would be a charity that raises funds nationally and passes this on to local charities providing services in their communities. This would be in contrast to charities whose main purpose is to provide goods/services. An example would be a charity that provides counselling services directly.

Reviewing Governance Procedures

Your governance procedures are the policies and guidelines that enable you to run your charity. This includes your charity's rules document and other policies including ones on financial management, conflicts of interest, staff and volunteers, internal processes and health and safety.

The review process will look different for each charity. It could be as simple as your Chair or another officer leading a discussion on governance at your AGM, with clear minutes showing any decisions and ensuring everyone is on the same page.

Charity Rules

Your rules will be the documents that set out your purposes, what you do and how you operate. We need the most up-to-date version, which means we need the version that contains the amendments.

If you have made changes to your rules, please upload an electronic copy of the amended version. If you do not have an electronic version, you may send these to us. Please ensure the version you submit is a good quality easily readable copy, and not the original.

Employees

Count anyone who is paid to work for your charity in an average week, including yourself.

Full-time employees are those who work for 30 or more hours a week. Part time employees are those who work for less than 30 hours a week.

Employee hours

For the employees you recorded including yourself, enter the total number of hours they would collectively work in an average week.

Volunteers

We count volunteer numbers over the entire financial year. Do not provide a weekly or monthly average. Volunteers are people who work for your charity without pay. Tell us how many people in total volunteered for your charity in this reporting period. Include yourself if you are not paid for your work.

Volunteer hours

We count volunteer numbers over the entire financial year. Do not provide a weekly or monthly average. For the volunteers, including yourself, that you recorded in the last section, enter the total number of hours they worked across the reporting period.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Reporting Tier

The Tier that a charity reports under is generally determined by the annual expenses or operating payments of its previous two financial years. Your charity's financial statements should contain a Statement of Accounting Policies that includes a statement about the standards your charity has reported under, which should indicate your reporting Tier. Look for this information under the heading Basis of Preparation, in the Statement of Accounting Policies.

Income Spent overseas

This could include any grants donations, goods, services or programs your charity sent or delivered outside of New Zealand, that go toward fulfilling your charitable purpose. Your charitable purpose can usually be found in your rules document, and on the public register/your dashboard.

Financial Policies, procedures and controls

This refers to any rules, guidelines, and practices your charity uses to manage and safeguard its overseas activities and resources effectively.

Business income

Business income is money your charity gains through selling products or services. Activities that were funded by grants, donations, and other general fundraising activity are not considered to have been funded by business income.

Receiving Donations (Donee Status)

This is any donations of money or koha your charity has received this financial year. This does not include grants received for specific purposes.

A minimum 75% within NZ

Compare the total amount your charity spent on charitable purposes overseas (if any) to the amount your charity spent towards charitable purposes within New Zealand.

If No, over the last three financial years...

For the first part of the question (the 75%): compare the total amount spent on charitable purposes overseas (if any) for the past three years to the total amount spent on charitable purposes within New Zealand for the same time.

For the second part (the 50%): compare the amount your charity spent on charitable purposes overseas (if any) for each of the past three years to the amount spent towards charitable purposes within New Zealand in the same year.

Control Relationships

Your charity would be considered controlled by another if all three of these are true:

Power over the other organisation - the other charity has existing rights that give them the ability to direct your charity's activities.

Access to benefits - the other charity has access to benefits (such as profits or services) from being involved with your charity.

Link between power and benefits - the other charity can use its power to influence the nature or amount of benefits they receive from your charity.

An example of a control relationship is where a charity establishes an incorporated society to run a second hand shop on their behalf, with profits returning to the charity. For further guidance see Financial reporting and control relationships.

An item is significant if recording and/or disclosure of the particular item, whether financial or non-financial, could influence the reader's understanding of your charity's overall performance.

What is "significant" will be different for each charity. For example, something that is significant for a small charity may not be significant for a large charity (e.g. computers or furniture).
